Conveyor Handling Company Names Doug Rittermann to Director of Sales and Michael Collins to Director of Operations

ELKRIDGE, MD, August 11, 2017 — Conveyor Handling Company is pleased to announce that Doug Rittermann has been promoted to Director of Sales, effective immediately.

For the past 14 months, Doug has been assisting Alan Carey, Vice President of Sales, with managing the newly hired Sales Engineers. He will now be responsible for managing the entire CHC sales force, maintaining existing vendor partnerships and developing new ones, fostering collaborative practices among departments and working closely with management on creating and executing strategic business development and marketing plans for CHC. Alan Carey will continue as Vice President of Sales, but in a more advisory and consultative role.

Additionally, Conveyor Handling Company is pleased to announce that Michael Collins has been promoted to Director of Operations, effective immediately.

In his new role, Michael will supervise the installation, fabrication, project management and controls department, as well as continue to manage the engineering team both in Elkridge, MD and Souderton, PA. He will be responsible for fostering creative thinking and teamwork with the Sales Department to improve CHC's business procedures and to support the company's vision for growth. Rich Rittermann, Vice President of Operations, will take on a more advisory and consultative role, and continue to foster customer partnerships and relationships.
